All the world's a stage—

O be joyful unto the Lord

Mighty Casey had struck out!

O' Wind, if Winter comes, can spring be far behind?

Beauty is the gift of God

The paths of glory lead but to the grave—

Tell me not in mournful tones

Omnis Gallia in tres partis divisa est

Give to the world the best you have

Neither a lender nor a borrower be—

And what is so rare as a day in June?

Pride goeth before a fall.

It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done.

Full well they laughed with counterfeited cheer

All things come alike to all.

I never saw a purple cow—I never hope to see one!

The gift of God

I shot an arrow into the air—

Oh wad some power the giftie gie us

Let us now be up and doing!

A thing of beauty is a joy forever

Sail on O Ship of State.

Confusion how hath made his masterpiece

Earth fills her lap with pleasures of her own

ty is the spice of life

Silence is golden.

Friends, Romans, Countrymen—

Tomorrow and tomorrow, and tomorrow creeps in this petty pace

The Lord is my shepherd

keep your head when all about you—wake to perish never.

Roll on then, deep and dark blue ocean, roll

Lord, be merciful to me, a Fool.

On man's first disobedience, and the fruit of—

Heaven lies about us in our infancy.

t the giver is bare.

As unto the bow the cord is,
So unto man is woman.

This is the forest primeval

Macduff! And d—

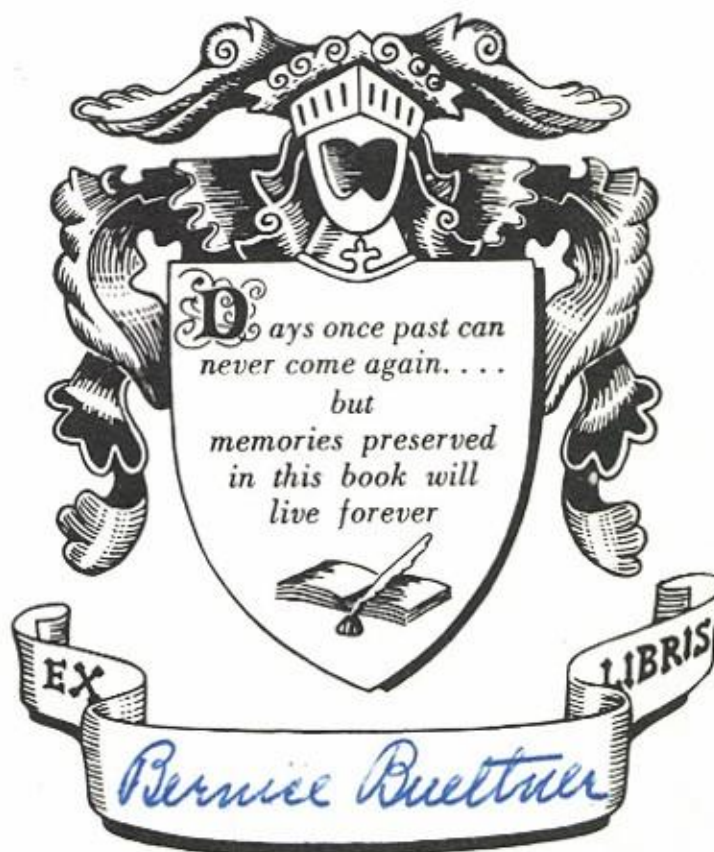

Let me live in a house by the side of the road.

That men may rise on stepping stones of their deadselves.

The satisfaction of accomplishment is not our reward, but the joy of service to C. H. S. is our compensation for the efforts to produce this annual.

We could say the same thing that is said in almost every foreword, because - - - we have tried to record another year of your life here; and just the same as always, we have tried to edit an annual that brings joy for the present and pleasant memories of the past for the time that is to come.

But what is more we have tried to make this book just our C. H. S.; yours and mine, everything that is here, nothing that is off our school grounds; for this is our book and we are C. H. S. now and will be for all time.

Because of his high ideals for the better things in life; of his efforts to pass these ideals on to our students; we appreciate what he has done for us, we dedicate the 1950 Prado Populus to

Principal's Message

High School life, full of youth and exuberance has need of a permanent record. Many of its associations and experiences are written forever in our memories. But in days to come we shall want more than these recollections; something to remind us who ran the organizations; who played on the teams and what everybody looked like when we were young together. Thus the value of this book, interesting and entertaining now, it will become more precious as the years go by.

Bernice Brettner

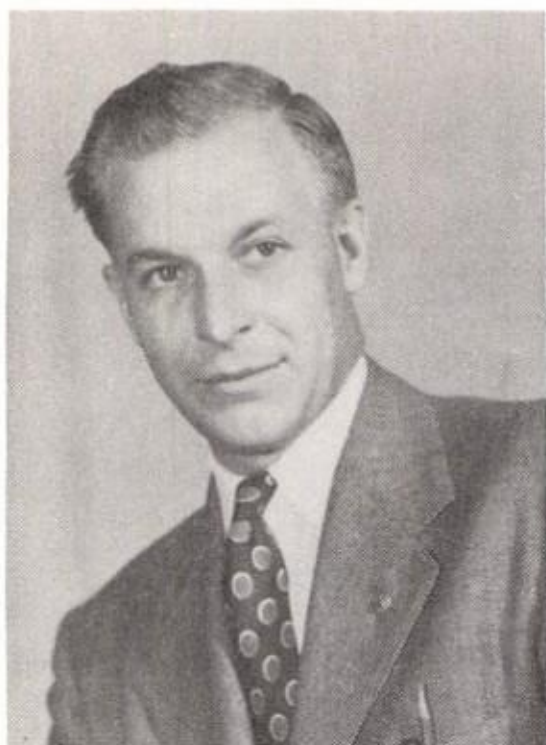

Superintendent's Message

The real corner stone of American Democracy is the Free Public School. It is the duty of the School to teach its students how best to become good American citizens and how to contribute to the best of their ability to a Christian American Society.

We can be proud of the past accomplishments of Cottonwood High School and the fine record of its Alumni. It is my sincere wish that Cottonwood High School may continue to improve in its plant, school program and teaching service to a point where it is unexcelled. With the fine type of students that come to our school from Cottonwood and the surrounding area I am sure that our school will continue to move ahead rapidly.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

A bright sunshiny day in early September nineteen hundred and forty-six, twenty students, striving for gold, started their voyage through the halls of C. H. S.

With picks and shovels divided among us and supplies packed on our backs we started digging.

At our first camp meeting we elected Lewis Bonham, President; Mary O'Neil, Vice President; Rita Ann Rohwein, Secretary; Patsy Suhr, Treasurer. To hold our rights a little more we elected Mary Jo Tacke and Clinton Schnider for our Council Members.

Everything went very smoothly until September 23rd, when the older seekers decided that they had to have a little entertainment. Because they had more experience than we, they started dressing us in costumes and told us things to do, this lasted until September 26th.

Gold seekers, in need of entertainment, started giving pep dances. In half a year, with the permission of Mr. McKay, our advisor, we had another camp meeting, at which we elected Mary Jo Tacke, President; Fred Seubert, Vice President; Peggy Wynn, Secretary; Donna Jean Tacke Treasurer; and Rita Ann Rohwein and Robert Duclos, Council Members.

A swell idea came to these students and on April 11th it sprang, the freshman hop which was enjoyed by the public. And on May 18th we finished our first year with a picnic.

Our goal, still for gold, with fifteen seekers left from the original twenty. Mr. Torgerson, our advisor, tried to trace them. He found that Joanne Lightfield went to Spokane; Jack Hasenoerhl, Greencreek; Peggy Wynn, Grangeville; Mary Jo Tacke, St. Gertrude's Academy; and Lewis Bonham, Lewiston.

Another camp meeting was found necessary so on September 9, 1947, we elected the following officers: Bob Duclos, President; Don Spencer, Vice President; Clinton Schnider, Secretary; Rita Ann Rohwein, Treasurer; Shirley Dixon and Fred Seubert, Council Members.

Another little question that was discussed was what to do about those newcomers, a year behind us. Wanting some fun and excitement, we planned a little program for them to do, to which they gave their consent without any argument.

In late January, we elected Delbert Nuzoll, President; Fred Funke, Vice President; Dorothy Sudkamp, Secretary; Mary O'Neil, Treasurer; and Dick Forsman and Harold Schacher, Council Members.

On May 17th we had Class Night for the Seniors. This ended our second year as gold seekers.

Now it was September 1948, and to our surprise we found two new faces, one was Walter Ford, and the other, Joanne Lightfield. To our dismay Shirley Dixon went to Texas, and Mary O'Neil, not knowing gold had already been found there, went to California to discover her fortune. Dorothy Sudkamp left for the Academy, and Dick Forsman and Harold Schacher struck oil instead of a gold mine.

For the following half year we elected Rita Ann Rohwein, President; Clinton Schnider, Vice President; Joanne Lightfield, Secretary-Treasurer; Walter Ford and Fred Funke, Council Members. The matter of class rings came up in the middle of October. Gold was almost struck, at least we could wear it now which made us very proud of ourselves.

Another meeting in January found Clinton Schnider, President; Don Spencer, Vice President; Joanne Lightfield, Secretary; Rita Ann Rohwein, Treasurer; Don Spencer and Norma Jungert, Council Members. Walter Ford was missing from our class now.

Then May 6th came around, which was Prom time. "In An Old-Fashioned Garden" was our theme. We closed the year with the annual school picnic which led us to a little stream not too far from our camp. Our advisor, Mr. Torgerson, didn't find fishing very good but everyone always knows how the big ones get away. Dig on class of '50', never give up. We'll strike gold soon.

In 1949 Mrs. Buettner became our advisor; Bob Duclos, President; Don Spencer, Vice President; Donna Tacke, Secretary; Clinton Schnider, Treasurer; Mary O'Neil and Dawn Huntley, Council Members. Don Simon, Mary O'Neil, and Dawn Huntley joined us, which made us fourteen.

On a foggy Thursday night, September 29th, the entire class started for the old rock which they had long protected for this occasion. With red and white paint and some paint brushes, we left emblems which would identify us in the future. We hope everyone saw our masterpieces while they lasted. As usual the Juniors had to be their repulsive selves and smear our four-day-old letters. But we didn't give up, for on Halloween night we Seniors went out again, and a little more successfully this time, to paint our letters on the other side of the road where they stayed. (We hope.)

Events during our last semester at C. H. S. were, the traditional, Senior Sneak, Baccalaureate, Class Night, Graduation, and last but not least, the school picnic.

Gold is found! It's not the kind of gold which can be bought or sold, but it's our wealth in Spirit, Character, Ability, and Sincerity.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1950, being of sound mind, memory and understanding do make, publish, and declare the following to be our last Will and Testament.

I, Dawn Huntley, will all my old rubber bands and spit balls to Coach Torgerson, who never could get them.

I, Pat Suhr, will my ability to smoke Camels to Marie Keener who smokes nothing milder than "Bull Durham".

I, Fred Seubert, will by ability to drink stove oil to Gerald Rohwein, who has a stronger stomach than I have.

I, Mary O'Neil, will my sugar bowl hair cut to Bonnie Schober, who has a good start.

I, Clinton Schnider, will all my Nezperce girl friends to Richard Bonhof, he might need them someday.

I, Rita Ann Rohwein, will my ability to see the brighter side of life to Imogene Jacks, who always seems to be in the dark.

I, Delbert Nuxoll, will my hat to anyone who will take it.

I, Donna Jean Tacke, will my ability to take teasing to Charlotte Jungert, who isn't teased enough already.

I, Bob Duclos, will my crude sense of humor to any boy who wants to have his neck broken by the girls.

I, Norma Jungert, will my bass horn to Henry Baker in hopes that someday he will be able to play it.

I, Don Simon, will my ability to play basketball to Richard Remacle, who might need it.

I, Joanne Lightfield, leave my half of "Old Bill" to Sally who will need it next year.

I, Freddy Funke, leave my "beauty naps" to everyone who stays out late. I've quite a reserve.

I, Don Spencer, will my reserved manner to Francis Rao for classroom use.

We, the Senior Class, leave C.H.S. to all underclassmen and future classmen. We know you will love it as we did.

I, Freddy Funke, leave my "beauty naps" to everyone who stays out late. I've quite a reserve.

I, Don Spencer, will my ~~reserve~~ manner to Francis Rao for classroom use.

We, the Senior Class, leave C. H. S. to all underclassmen and future classmen. We know you will love it as we did.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

In making these poems we had quite a time,
For none of them would seem to rhyme.
So please excuse our corny poems,
We're not Oliver Wendel Holmes!
As O'Neil would say "they're about half,"
But some of them will make you laugh.

Listen my friends and never fear,
The story of the seniors you are about to hear.
Some of them false and some of them true,
Please don't blush if they pertain to you.

When we entered this school in "46",
We put some teachers in a heck of a fix.
We couldn't get along at first,
Because they said "We were the worst."

Here's to a boy who has quite a time,
But a better kid you'll never find.
He likes a girl and thinks she's a gem,
His name is DAWN HUNTLEY, better known as "KEM."

Then there is the leader of our band,
She usually gets a look from every man.
She's after a good grade all the time,
This girl's name is RITA ANN ROHWEIN.

DON SPENCER is quite a man,
He'll win a ball game if he can.
Not to give himself the fame,
But to show off to his dame.

And then in "47",
We had 4 more than 11.
We were the Sophomores of C. H. S.,
And feeling pretty high, as if you couldn't guess.

NORMA JUNGERT wears glasses,
She usually behaves in all her classes.
Once in a while she gets an ornery streak,
But most of the time she is pretty meek.

This boy does his best,
To be twice as funny as all the rest.
Just ask coach about old "CLEM"
If he isn't the funniest of them.

Then we have FREDDY FUNKE,
His nickname is "FUNJI" it used to be "MONK".
When it comes to spit wads he really has fun,
But when he sees Coach he's ready to run.

And then in "48" things began to happen,
Because you could never catch us nappen'.
With our Junior Prom and everything,
We really made that school year ring.

PATSY SUHR is one of us,
She never seems to raise a fuss.
She studies hard in school all day,
And hardly has a thing to say.

FRITZ SEUBERT is a man of his word,
Always seen, but never heard.
He's lots of fun throughout the year,
But on a football field he's a man to fear.

Roses are red and some are yellow,
MARY O'NEIL is out to get herself a fellow.
Her hair is red, her eyes are brown,
She's the biggest boy chaser in the town.

DON SIMON is quite a guy,
We call him "SIMON" sometimes "CY".
He's good in football and basketball too,
Look out girls he's after you.

Don Spencer is the man of her heart,
They often said they'd never part.
It won't be long before they're gone,
So we wish good luck to DONNA and DON.

BOB DUCLOS is a boy who is good in athletics,
He usually leads us in calisthenics.
He scored 166 points in football,
But in his classes he gets no score at all.

Here is a girl who plays in the band,
Her last name is LIGHTFIELD her first name is JOANNE.
She is editor of the MUSTANG STAMPEDE,
And is liked by all it is agreed.

And then in the year of "49",
We were planning to leave this school behind.

Then we have TORGERSON who governs us most,
As most of you know, he's our basketball coach.
He's always good for a laugh or two,
But if you cross him it's heck to undo.

Now we have a person who's in her prime,
Even though she's over thirty-nine.
She's one of the teachers of C. H. S.,
MRS. BUETTNER is the one if you can't guess.

Our football coach was MR. REID,
We called him "Baldy", yes indeed.
And if you were to mess up a play,
OH! What terrible words he'd say.

Our English teacher is JACK MELROSE,
He thinks we're stupid, we wonder how he knows.
He's the band director in our school,
To most of us, He's no man's fool.

Then in this year of "1950",
We studied hard and were very thrifty.
If you didn't study, now it's too late,
For this is the year we graduate.

Simon and Clem want to mention their names,
Maybe someday it will bring them fame.
Not as President of the United States,
But perhaps someday at the Pearly Gates.

Now teachers, we will apologize here,
For the things we've done throughout this year.
Not only this year but all of them,
From the Senior Class, including Clem.

Here's where we change from silly to sad,
We all have our faults, but we aren't all bad.
Now we would like to say Good-by,
To all the students of Cottonwood High.
In hopes that you will take our places.
Not in costumes all covered with laces,
But in football suits and basketball too,
We'll be on the side lines watching you.

Delbert Nuxoll and Don Simon

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Good Morning! This is Bob Duclos speaking to you from Station F-I-F-T-Y. The correct time in 30 seconds will be 9:45 A.M.

We present Jack Melrose's "Jazz Jamberine", brought to you through the courtesy of the new streamlined Reid cars, new because they run a lifetime on one gas capsule. Persons living in this modern age of 1965 are lucky people because of Professor Herald Reid's famous discovery of the gas capsule.

We now open our program with the old favorite of 1950 "Mule Train" featuring a bass solo by the one and only Miss Norma Jungert who has risen to great fame under the direction of Mr. Melrose, who was her high school instructor. - - - - -

We interrupt this program to bring you a special announcement concerning an explosion of the Magnesium Experimental Laboratory in the southern part of Cottonwood, whose population has greatly increased due to road construction of the new Grave-creek road from Whitebird.

According to Professor Frederick Seubert the explosion was caused by faulty goods delivered earlier this morning by traveling salesman Dawn Huntley. Mr. Huntley has been traveling on the Torgerson Jet Air Lines and delivering goods for the past eight years. Mr. Torgerson retired from his job as Superintendent of Cottonwood High School after his purchase of the Cottonwood Air Port.

Among those on the casualty list are Delbert Nuxoll, fish and game warden for the State of Idaho. He seems to be recovering as he remarked to his emergency nurse Donna Jean Tacke, "I surely hope those explosions don't scare my fish and animals away too far!" Donna offered to give up her duties as head nurse of the Cottonwood Hospital to assist in this emergency.

Just to show how great the explosion was Mr. Don Spencer stated that some of the remains of the explosion flew as far as his farm one mile south of Cottonwood. Don donated the land where the laboratory formerly stood to his old friend and classmate, Fred Seubert.

Miss Mary O'Neil is suffering from shock. Miss O'Neil is secretary to head scientist at the plant. Professor Fred Seubert. Mary ran from the building just as the walls of her office collapsed behind her due to the second explosion.

Cartoonist, Don Simon is resting comfortably since the bone in his leg has been set. Don suffered from a compound fracture when a rafter flew from the brilliantly lighted area, pinning him to the ground. (Don draws for the Newsweek Magazine and his studio is on the street floor of the building.) Mr. Simon was soon rescued by Mr. Fred Funke, head of the largest labor union in the United States. Mr. Funke was awakened from a deep sleep by the explosion and ran from his near-by hotel room to see what he could do to help.

All patients are being treated by the resident physician, Dr. Clinton Schnider. Dr. Schnider, specializing in setting broken bones and treating burns, has proven very efficient in handling the many injured. Dr. Schnider is a young doctor, this being his fifth year in practice. He is certainly doing well for this short time.

We have just received another bulletin from newspaper reporter Rita Ann Rohwein, who has been busy collecting the inside information concerning this catastrophe. Miss Rohwein reports that Pat Suhr has left her fabulous New York penthouse apartment to donate her time to scrubbing floors. Miss Suhr has gained great fame as a clothing designer.

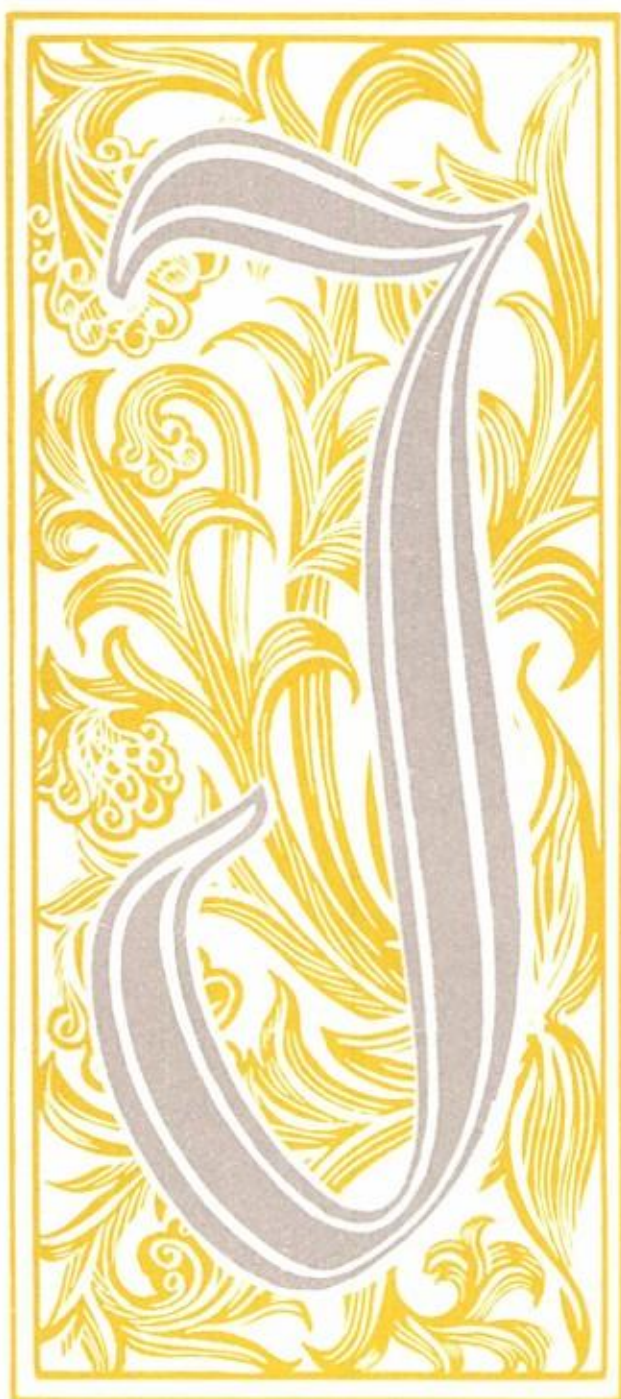

First grade teacher, Miss Joanne Lightfield, is having her thirty willing little helpers draw some pictures to amuse and cheer the atmosphere of the hospital.

Mrs. Buettner, retired teacher of the Cottonwood High School, has offered to donate enough money from her Teacher's Retirement Fund to Professor Fred Seubert so that he can rebuild his laboratory.

Keep your radio tuned to this station for further developments. We now return you to the program "Jazz Jamberine."

All the world's a stage—

O be joyful unto the Lord

Mighty Casey had struck out!

O' Wind, if Winter comes, can spring be far behind?

Beauty is the gift of God

The paths of glory lead but to the grave—

Tell me not in mournful

Omnis Gallia in tres partis divisa est

Neither a lender nor a borrower be —

Give to the world the best you have

Pride goeth before a fall.

And what is so rare as a day in June?

And what is so rare as a day in June?

Full well they laughed with counterfeits

All things come alike to all.

I never saw a purple cow—I never hope to see one!

The gift

I shot an arrow into the air—

Oh wad some power the giftie gie us

Let us now be up and doing!

A thing of beauty is a joy forever

Sail on O Ship of State.

Confusion how hath made his masterpiece

Earth fills her lap with pleasures of her own

Variety is the spice of life

Silence is golden.

bers—

Friends, Romans, Countrymen—

Tomorrow and tomorrow, and tomorrow creeps in this petty pace

can keep your head when all about you—

The Lord is my shepherd

that wake to perish never.

Roll on then, deep and dark blue ocean, roll

On man's first disobedience, and the fruit of—

Lord, be merciful to me, a Fool.

ee.

out the giver is bare.

Heaven lies about us in our infancy.

Macduff! And d—

As unto the bow the cord is,
So unto man is woman.

This is the forest primeval

Let me live in a house by the side of the road.

That men may rise on stepping stones of their deadselves.
